Additional Notes from SITH__CHICK:

Paypal: When sending $ via PP don't put any notes on the payment, no thank you, nothing. Send PM that payment has been sent or post in the current thread or however you want to pass the info along, just don't do it via paypal.

Drawings: We talked about the RMFF buying small gifts to support this effort or we can make a list of who the next person(s) to bring an item to filter through the RMFF so one person doesn't get stuck doing it most of the time. Didn't seem to be much opinion either way.

Should there be more then one item? That was about 1/2 & 1/2.
